

PLAYWRIGHT SHAW DENOUNCES CRITICS

Author of "Mrs. Warren's Profession" Indignant.

WOMEN SHOULD DECIDE

Asks Opinion of Those Experienced in Rescue Work to Verdict of "First Nighters."

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A correspondent today interviewed G. Bernard Shaw in reference to the suppression by the New York police of his play, "Mrs. Warren's Profession."

Mr. Shaw said: "If Police Commissioner McAdoo has earned by his public services the confidence of the American people as a man of higher character and deeper insight into social needs, moral problems and greater concern for the good of the community than I, it is not for me to question his qualifications or to invite Mr. Daly to resist his authority. I have a certain reputation in the world, which will not be altered by Mr. McAdoo's conviction that I am a blackguard."

Whacks Gotham Police.

"The New York police have a certain reputation in the world, and that also will not be altered by my conviction. I know my own business better than they do. In the opinion of the police, prostitution is a permissible subject on the stage only when it is made agreeable. In my opinion the numerous plays in which it is made agreeable should be counterbalanced by plays in which its sordid cause is exposed. I am extremely proud of having written the play. It has made me more friends than any other work of mine, especially among the serious women. It will make me friends of the same stamp in America and these friends will keep steadily pressing the two questions:

"Now, Then."

"Are the facts exposed in 'Mrs. Warren's Profession' denied?"

"If not, in whose interests are they suppressed?"

"It will be seen more and more clearly that the police, doubtless with the best intentions, are protecting, not public morality, but the interests of the most dangerous class, namely the employers who pay women less than subsistence wages and overwork them mercilessly to grind out profits for themselves out of the piteous of the nation."

"Naturally they raise the clamor of immorality and disgusting dialogue, but in the end the public conscience of America, at present a hasty, unintelligent, and easily duped force, will get educated and go over them like a steam roller, with an effective factory code stated by the way."

"Mr. Daly offered to abide by the verdict of the New York press. If this is true he must have forgotten that the New York press does not go to the theater."

Wants Editors, Not Critics.

"It only sends critics."

"Let the editors come and the verdict proposed by Mr. Daly will be possible. But if social and moral questions are left to the critics, they will not improve on Mr. McAdoo, who probably knows the real world better than they."

"For my own part I would prefer a jury of public-spirited women with experience in rescue work and slum life, to any other jury whatever. They know how social matters are vice by refusing to pay virtue decently."

Mrs. Warren's Profession Prohibited in Gotham

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—"Mrs. Warren's Profession," the Bernard Shaw play denounced by the public and the critics as morally unfit for production, will not be seen in New York again.

Arnold Daly, the actor-manager, after receiving word from Commissioner McAdoo that he would arrest the whole company if they produced the play again—after consultation with his attorneys about injunction proceedings, and after the arrest of Manager Gumpertz—decided that he would abandon the play.

MOST RECENTLY COMMISSIONED MAJOR GENERAL IN THE ARMY

MAJ. GEN. JOHN E. WESTON,

Who Has Been Appointed to the Command of the Northern Division of the Army.

When Mr. Daly awoke yesterday he found that every newspaper in town pronounced the play indecent. He was informed that Miss Chrystal Harris, who played the part of Vivie, Mrs. Warren's daughter, had been sickened by the guffaws of the prurient crowd in the theater. She sent word that she was too ill to act, and that an understudy must take her part.

Mr. Daly, rather agitated, sought his lawyers, House, Grossman & Vorhaus. In the afternoon, with him was his manager, Gumpertz. After a prolonged interview Mr. Vorhaus gave to the reporters this statement, typewritten by the press:

"Mr. Daly," Mr. Vorhaus said, "had given his word that he would leave the decision to the dramatic critics. The critics all condemned the play. So Mr. Daly, a man of honor, keeps his word and withdraws the play."

WANTS DAMAGES FOR CHILD'S DEATH

Charles H. Potter, administrator of the estate of Fannie Potter, three years old, whose death it is alleged was caused by fire, November 19 last, has sued Lyman F. Ellis and the District to recover $10,000 as damages.

Mr. Potter explains that on the date mentioned while playing in an alley in the rear of 706 Seventh street, Fannie Potter's clothes caught fire from a pile of rubbish which was burning about two feet from the gate of the plaintiff. He further alleges it was the duty of the District authorities to keep the alley in a safe condition as a playground for children. Messrs. R. H. McNeill and W. E. Nattress are named as counsel for the plaintiff.

AT AUCLAIR HOSPITAL Sisters of Charity Save a Little Boy's Life With Father John's Medicine

Among the children under our care was a poor orphan boy, eight years old, poorly nourished, and suffering difficulty in breathing, cough, diarrhoea, indigestion and vomiting. The sisters who had him in charge consulted three different doctors and they all pronounced the case hopeless, saying that the good care he enjoyed was all the help he could have, and that it was useless to submit him to any new treatment.

When a sister received from a friend a present of a bottle of Father John's Medicine, she immediately started to give of the medicine to the little boy, with the wonderful result that after one month and a half with this treatment, he was improved so much in strength

Weston's New Post One of Importance

Newest Major General Has Been Assigned to Command of the Northern Division of the Army, With Headquarters at St. Louis.

Gen. John E. Weston is the newest major general in the army, having been very recently raised to that rank from a brigadier general.

Following his elevation to the new rank, he has been assigned to the important command of the northern division of the army, with headquarters at St. Louis.

This is one of the important posts, having been such ever since the civil war, involving control of a large property.

General Weston's selection for this post is taken by his friends as a flattering recognition of his services and abilities during the long period of his army career.

MRS. MACKALL ON BAIL, BUT HANCOCK IS HELD

Sister Gave Security Late Yesterday. Brother's Bond Has Not Been Determined Yet.

Mrs. Amanda Mackall, who was held by a coroner's jury at Hyattsville, Md., last week for being co-suspect in the death of Emma Smallwood, appeared at the court house at Upper Marlboro, Md., yesterday, and gave bail in $5,000 for her appearance in court next April.

Young Hancock was not admitted to bail. It has not been definitely settled as yet the amount of bail he will be required to give or when he will be released.

Lieut. Col. B. R. Russell, his wife, and Miss Mary Cooke, a cousin of the Hancock, and Attorneys Rogers and Wells accompanied Mrs. Mackall to Marlboro. The party called at the jail where young Hancock is held and spent an hour with the prisoner.

SHERLOCK HOLMES FINDS TOBACCO IN IRELAND

Conan Doyle's Scheme for Raising the Weed Said to Be Meeting With Success.

Is Conan Doyle to give the world some new pipe stories?

The Department of Commerce and Labor announces this morning that it is informed that 70 tons of tobacco are being dried in the Department of Agriculture's tobacco barn, at Lough Cross, Broadway, Wexford, Ireland, as an outcome of a scheme started by Conan Doyle.

Several farms in the locality have an acre each under tobacco, the report continues, and it is confidently expected that the experiment will prove a success.
